

The ruling on ownership should be delayed to allow true public comment. Secret proceedings on matters affecting the public are wrong. The exact wording of any proposal should be released, to allow debate, a hallmark of democracy. Diversity of ownership is essential to the public interest. Delay action on this proposal.